

Privacy Statement

This document sets out how we manage personal information that is collected as part of our business practices. Our privacy guidelines have been reviewed to be in-line with Australian Privacy legislation that is in affect from 12th March, 2014.

When discussing Your Information we are referring to personal Information that is defined by the Privacy Act and new legislation that has taken affect in 2014.

Personal information is any information or opinion about an identifiable individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable.

The Kinds of information collected and held

Depending on the relationship with Eureka Conferencing we may collect and hold a range of different information about you.

This may include:

- Your name
- Business Contact Details including – position title, street address, telephone number and mobile number.
- Host and Guest Codes
- Business Financial information – such as business credit card
- Information on how you currently use or intend to use our services.

How Your Information is collected

We may collect Your Information in a number of ways:

- Directly from you – when you provide information to us through our help or sales telephone lines.
- Via online forms – when you complete an online application form or submit an enquiry.
- From publicly available sources – when background research from company websites is undertaken
- 3rd parties – if your name has been provided to us from a party known to you as a referral.

If you choose not to provide certain information about you, we may not be able to provide you with the service you require.

How Your Information is held

Your Information is held in electronic format in secure storage facilities that are owned and operated by our service providers. We take all reasonable steps to maintain the security of Your Information and to protect it from unauthorised disclosures.

While we take these steps to maintain the security of Your Information, you should be aware of the many information security risks that exist today.

How Your Information is used

We may use Your Information for a range of different purposes, including:

- To provide products and services to you
- To provide you with information about those products and services that will assist you with enquiries or purchases
- To administer and manage the products and services we provide to you
- To charge and bill you for the services that have been used
- To collect any amounts you may owe as result of service usage.
- To gain an understanding of your information and communication needs
- To perform research and analysis in order improve our customer service, products and offerings.
- To monitor network use, quality and performance and to operate, maintain, develop, test and upgrade our systems and infrastructure
- As authorised or required by the Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth) and other laws.

How Your Information is used for Direct Marketing

We may use Your Information for a range of marketing activities so that we can promote and market our products, services and special offers that we think will be of interest to you. This may be carried out via email, social media, online content and display advertising and may continue after you cease acquiring any products or service from us until you opt out via the websites (as outlined below) or by calling 0800 448 301.

How your information is disclosed

We may disclose Your Information to 3rd parties who provide services to us, including organisations and contractors that assist us with delivering our services. These include:

- Mailing operations, billing and debt recovery functions
- Information technology systems that are used for management or development of our business.
- External market research companies that have been commissioned by us to undertake research on our services.
- Installation, maintenance and repair services

In some cases, the organisations that we may disclose Your Information may be based outside Australia. Our billing system and Marketing Automation system providers are based in the United States of America. Both have strict guidelines and policies to maintain the security of Your Information.

How you can access or correct your information or make a privacy complaint.

If you wish to access any personal information that we hold or would like to correct any errors in that information, please contact us by calling 0800 448 301 or emailing us at support@teleconference.co.nz

You may also use these contact details to notify us of any privacy complaints you have, including if you think we have failed to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APP) or the Privacy Act.

We are committed to responding to any complaints and resolving any issues, however you also have the option to lodge a complaint with the regulators:
